According to Mr. George L. Cox's weather report the 5th, 6th, 11th, 20th, 21st and 22d of February, 1897, were all rainy, disagreeable days but it remained for the 5th day of February, 1905, to cap the climax. If there could be a more nasty, disagreeable day than yesterday may the Lord preserve and protect us. The pavements were simply impassable and the middle of the streets was exclusively used by pedestrians.

AN UGLY FALL

Mrs. Martha Power Sustains Broken Arm in Market Street

Saturday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock, as Mrs. Martha Power was passing up Market and when opposite Mr. Ben B. Poyntz's residence, she fell and broke her right arm at the wrist.

Dr. J. B. Taulbee attended the unfortunate lady, and at this hour she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Power has the sympathy of her many friends in the misfortune that has befallen her.

Market street above Third is exceedingly dangerous such weather as we are now having.

During the past fourteen months at least a half dozen people have had a limb broken by receiving falls between Third and Fourth streets in Market.

A GREAT DAY

The Sunday Evangelistic Services Were Largely Attended

Despite the ice paved streets people wended their way to the Baptist Church at 8:30 a. m. yesterday, where a consecration service was held. This was an uplift to all present, and was only a foregleam of the other services of the day.

At the hour of 3 p. m. the First M. E. Church, South, was filled with women to hear Dr. Ely. Prof. Pearman sang his best, and the rich ringing melody of his voice inspired all hearts. Dr. Ely delivered a short practical address, to the delight of all.

At 3:30 the Washington Opera-house was nearly filled with men. Never, perhaps, in the religious history of Maysville has there assembled so large an audience of men. They came from all departments of life and it was an inspiring sight. Led by Prof. Pearman, with Dr. Barbour at the piano, they sang with hearty good will. The men seemed to catch the spirit of the meeting and let themselves loose.

The male quartette sang a selection, which was encored; then Prof. Pearman sang "The Holy City," which was heartily encored. The Professor sang this grand old song to perfection. It was never better rendered than on this occasion.

Dr. Ely delivered a strong, stirring address on the subject, "Nothing Hid." He brought out the great truths, which we are liable to forget, that we are making our own records now—today. We can hide nothing in our lives but what it will come out. We are revealing ourselves in our everyday life, though we may be unconscious of the fact. He pressed home with telling force the import of a pure life. Many responded with requests for prayer and stood for a better manhood.

At 7:30 every seat in the Baptist Church was filled and many were standing, although hundreds of chairs had been gathered from the other Churches during the day. This large congregation coming together under almost impossible weather, dangerous to life and limb, was only an expression of the deep interest that is being manifested in the meetings.

The song service was grand, and put many of the older ones back to the days of the old fashion singing school. Prayer was made by Dr. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South, and Prof. Pearman sang a solo that made its way to the heart.

Dr. Ely took his text from Luke, 19:5: "The son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

A large number acknowledged Jesus as their Savior, and some expressed a desire to profess him.

The meetings this afternoon and evening promise to be of vital import. The 8 o'clock hour will be devoted to the subject of "Visions."

FRIDAY NIGHT'S SERMON.

Dr. Ely took his text from Second Kings, third chapter and sixteenth verse, "Make this valley full of ditches." He gave in quick graphic sentences the events that led up to the words of the text, then he plunged into the theme of the evening. We note the following pertinent sentences caught on the fly:

There are two sides of religion—man and God. There is an interblending of the Divine and the human. God can do anything with a man if he will let him. This text is an object lesson of a cooperation—a combine in ancient times; the three Kings went into an alliance without consulting God, and they got into a hole—a rat.

You can't cut God out of your life without running against snags; when a man's pocket-book is touched we get close to a man's religion; we can't live without God. He is in every drop of water, every spark of light, every mouthful we eat.

Men wait until they fall down into some hole before they call on God for help; the Preacher need have no fear of losing his job. He'll come in somewhere, even if it is only at a funeral; men often reserve their religion until they get sick and about to die, then they make good resolutions if God will only restore them to health, but as soon as they get out with the boys they smash their resolutions all up. Two things never change—human nature and God; a man can be ten thousand miles from God and yet be right here; it is a wonderful thing to catch the message of the age—may Maysville catch the message.

God wants obedience not sacrifice; you can only limit God's blessing by the preparation you make; there are lots of smart people in a community who can do things better than the other fellow; religion is a very practical thing, and I have no use for a man's religion that is bottled up. One man can keep ten men from working, but it takes ten men to get one to work for God; if we expect God to save Maysville there must be instruments—people digging the valley full of ditches. The trouble is not with God, it is with us. It is not a question of joining that Church or this Church, or giving up that or the other, but go to work. There is too much formality, too much creed, too much theology—we must be a channel, a trench; there is not a person here but can dig a ditch of blessing into human hearts.

REV. DR. WARDER

Death Friday in Louisville of Noted Baptist Divine

The Rev. Dr. Joseph Walter Warder, a noted Baptist divine, died Friday evening last at Louisville of the infirmities of age.

Dr. Warder was a native of Logan county and was born October 13th, 1825.

He came from a family of Preachers, his father, William Warder, being one of two brothers noted in the history of the denomination in Virginia and Kentucky, and a pioneer in the work in this state.

Dr. Warder's theological education was received at Newton and Princeton Theological Seminaries, and he entered the Ministry at the age of twenty-three.

His first Pastorate was in this city, where he remained three years, and where he met Miss Elizabeth M. Tureman, whom he married in 1852.

Dr. Warder left the Maysville Church to accept a call to the First Baptist Church in Frankfort.

Decensed is survived by his wife and five children—Henry T. Warder of Louisville, W. M. of Spokane, Wash., E. M. of Memphis, H. M. of Jeffersonville and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Warder of Philadelphia.

There was one addition at the Third Street M. E. Church at yesterday morning's service.

The amount of tobacco used in China is enormous. Most of it is produced by the consumers or in the immediate vicinity of where it is consumed, and does not get into the trade reports at all. The foreign tobacco trade has scarcely scratched the surface of the field.

GONE FOR GOOD.

No Reason For Any Maysville Sufferer to Fear the Return of It.

How often the pain returns to the aching back when you think you are well rid of it. No fear of such a return after using Doan's Kidney Pills. They make bad backs weak and weak backs strong and keep them so. The testimony of Maysville people proves this claim a fact. You can readily verify this fact by the following:

John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of back-ache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciates the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with back-ache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

On a Strike....

Buyers of furniture seem to have gone on a strike. The reason is not apparent. It is certainly not on account of strike, for we have on hand the best stock in our line. We are carrying a far better stock than the trade justifies. We are trying SO hard to please YOU.

Willing to Arbitrate.

We are certain that this strike is not caused by price. Statistics prove that our prices offer you far better opportunities than any other store. We are certain that our prices are right, but come in and talk it over. We are willing to arbitrate the present strike.

Come In; Let's Talk It Over.

We want your business. In fact, must have the home trade to support the store that we have given you.

A Matter of Pride is our beautiful store to us, and we believe that you too, are proud of your furniture store, for you realize that few towns can show one as pretty.

The Senate and House are wide apart on the question and considerable log-rolling will have to be done in order to bring them together.
